Major activities affecting case closing which are not reflected above, and matters pending, date of hearing or sale, and other action:

09/19/12 All claims are known. This will be a surplus case. The Trustee will abandon the contents of the Safe Deposit Box and a claim against the Hoyt Admin Trust. Trustee will move to file the TFR.

1/14/13 Debtor has objected to most of the Proofs of Claims. These issues will need to be resolved before the trustee can move forward.

1/15/2014 A party is litigating with the debtor over the status of funds held by the estate. Once that issue is resolved, the Trustee will move to close the case.

6/17/2014 All claims have been resolved. Trustee will prepare the TFR.

- Michael Caplan 7/9/2014 Even though this debtor is a non-profit corporation and pays no income tax, tax returns must be filed and the Trustee is awaiting their preparation.

1/27/2015 Debtor provided no prior tax returns or financial information to prepare tax returns. CPA is is trying to figure how to file returns without prior information.
